

Grammar and Punctuation: The basics

	Page/s
Orientation
An introduction to grammar and punctuation	3–4
Choosing to make ‘peace’ or ‘war’ with the reader
Exercise 1: Five general questions	5
Answer sheet for Exercise 1	6
A colour-coded ‘cheat sheet’ for subject , verb/s and predicate , and other grammatical elements	7
Active and passive voice	8
Sixteen common problems	9–14
‘The Twelve Tenses of English’ and ‘All about Verbs ’	15–18
Exercise 2: Eight general questions	19
Answer sheet for Exercise 2	20
Construction of English
What are phrases and clauses?	21–2
Phrases , independent clauses and dependent clauses in ‘Space Oddity’	23–4
Exercise 3: Seven general questions	25
Answer sheet for Exercise 3	26
What are the six types of sentence?	27
Statements , questions , commands and exclamations in ‘Happy Together’	28–9

Perfect punctuation

‘The Poetry of Punctuation’	30
‘Waterloo Sunset’, annotated for its punctuation	31–2
Exercise 4 : 25 punctuation questions	33–5
Answer sheet for Exercise 4	36–40
The three ways to set up a bulleted list (dot points)	41

The nine parts of speech

Seven parts of speech in ‘Wichita Lineman’	42
What are the nine parts of speech?	43
Exercise 5 : Colour coding the parts of speech	44–5
Answer sheet for Exercise 5	46
REVISION: Subject , verb/s and predicate ; simple , compound and complex sentences; and phrases , in an excerpt about ‘Penny Lane’	47–9