

Perfect Punctuation

Course notes

	Page/s
'Penny Lane' excerpt: 'Subject, Verb/s and Predicate', 'Simple, Compound and Complex Sentences' and 'Phrases'	3–5
Exercise 1: Edit out the problem in each of the six sentences.	6
'The Poetry of Punctuation'	7
'Waterloo Sunset', annotated for punctuation	8–9
The full stop	10–12
The question mark	13–14
The exclamation mark	15–16
Exercise 2: Edit out the problem in each of the six sentences.	17
The comma	18–25
The colon	26–8
The semi-colon	29–30
The dash	31–9
Exercise 3: Edit out the problem in each of the six sentences.	40
Parentheses, brackets and braces	41–2
The ellipsis	43
Quotation marks	44–6
Exercise 4: Edit out the problem in each of the five sentences.	47

The apostrophe	48–52
The hyphen	53–61
The solidus	62
Bulleted lists (dot points)	63–6
Exercise 5: Edit out the problem in each of the four sentences and the problems in the bulleted list.	67
How do the British–Australian and American punctuation styles differ?	68–71
How do the British–Australian and American spelling styles differ?	72–4
Exercise 6: Copy edit the article by changing its punctuation and spelling styles from American to British–Australian, correcting its punctuation and spelling errors, and editing for sense and clarity.	75–9
ANSWER SHEET for EXERCISE 1	80–1
ANSWER SHEET for EXERCISE 2	82–3
ANSWER SHEET for EXERCISE 3	84–5
ANSWER SHEET for EXERCISE 4	86–7
ANSWER SHEET for EXERCISE 5	88–9
SAMPLE EDIT for EXERCISE 6	90–4